

Illustration: Tim Casswell

Media is filled with trash and no deep thought          This is an age of sight rather than sound          Concepts are static ... Life is moving          Music is the art of Sound, Space and Time -          living a joint moment. Sound and Worlds are a precondition of          thought and life          Dance is the response to the heart beat          Song is the soul to overcome CRIME          Contagious prejudice &amp; violence          The endless cycle of Evil          We can never learn when we don't face what          we don't know          This is our crime un confessed          Criminals are mentally and emotionally          aborted children - punishment is useless Listening ... singing to the unborn          child Attached to the infinite...          The infinite in every cell We excuse compromise for the sake of profit          at the expense of principles	A NEW MORALITY IS REQUIRED that can be          worshiped within all religions          A SONG          A THOUGHT          A SILENCE We are living in a time of bought peace which is          about to explode...          We need MUSIC and DANCE          Can we save ourselves?          Yes if the good majority act...          I Propose an Assembly Cultures, esp. minorities          a voice to balance the power of states To give cultural autonomy without national          sovereignty          A sense of religion will often overcome its          official representatives Employment and unemployment are false          concepts          Everyone is self employable          Welfare Credit Card: For everyone for food;          shelter. Music, recreation and all needs for life...
---	--