

Press announcement

Homage to the Japanese people, Monday 21 March 2011 at 12.00 (midday) in Geneva.

Equinox Earth Day
Earth Focus Foundation / The Geneva Friendship Association
Geneva – Shinagawa

The Earth Focus Foundation with the participations of the Geneva Friendship Association Geneva – Shinagawa invite the public to meet in the Ariana Parc for a homage to the Japanese people.

Monday 21 March 2011

At 12.00 o'clock

Parc de l'Ariana – Ariana Park, The Pavillion of the Shinagawa bell

Avenue de la Paix 10 – Geneva

On this occasion Monsieur Philippe Neeser, President of the Friendship Association Geneva – Shinagawa, will be present. He will ring the bell at 12.21 exactly, which will follow with a moment of silence in support of the population of Japan, who are suffering such difficulties

On this day, in several other cities around the World, Vienna, New York, Berlin amongst others, similar bells will also toll. The United Nation has the « Japanese Peace Bell ». as the symbol of peace.

The Shinagawa Bell carries the symbol of good understanding between the communities of Geneva and Japan but this Monday 21 March, it will allow show the expression of solidarity over frontiers from Geneva.

Let's be many at this rendez-vous !

The Shinagawa Bell – Switzerland / Japan « Earth Day » & 1st Day of Spring

www.earthfocusfoundation.org www.geneve-shinagawa.ch earthsocietyfoundation.org/history.htm
www.earthsite.org/john.htm
www.earthsite.org/

Media Contact

M. Quentin Deville
P +41 (0)79 738 63 64
quentin@earthfocus.org